CLASS I

AUSTIN W. JONES, JR.
President, Boston Latin School Association

DEDICATION

As President of the Boston Latin School Association, I am very happy to convey to the members of our outstanding football squad our best wishes for success on Thanksgiving Day against our ancient and honorable traditional rival, English High School. This is the oldest football rivalry in the country and has survived the vicissitudes of time, defying the elements which would preclude playing under any other circumstances. The two schools enjoy a deep respect for each other, and our Alumni come out in force for this annual game. It is always a joy to see our team so well coached and so professional in carrying out their assignments with ultimate victory as their goal. As Alumni, we relive the days when we attended the school and either played or were rooters for our football teams. The teamwork, the loyalty and the fortitude demonstrated by our football teams have always been exemplary.

Let us all resolve to be present at the game on Thanksgiving Day to give that splendid support which is so vital to any team. The Latin School spirit stands supreme, and the young men we will observe on the playing field will be the leaders of our society tomorrow. Teamwork is the cornerstone of success. We salute our gallant football squad and extend to them our heartiest wishes for success on Thanksgiving Day.

Best Wishes to the team . . .

Class II says

"Big D does it again"

For 88 years English High and Boston Latin have met in their annual big game. This has been a healthy and interesting rivalry. Everyone connected with both of these fine institutions of learning wish the contest on Thanksgiving Day to continue on. Fine men, and successful athletes have had their start in life attending one of these schools. Coaches and students are dedicated to the cause of having their school emerge victorious in this game regardless of their season's record previous to that. May the two teams that appear on the greensward be imbued with the same spirit of competitive fair play that has been shown in the contests of the past. In later years at class reunions when former players in this game reminisce they will be reminded of Oliver Wendell Holmes' famous poem, particularly the part that says, "May they always be happy, and smiling, and gay. Till the last dear companion falls smiling away." — From "The Boys" by Oliver Wendell Holmes.

JAMES G. EGAN '25

English High School Alumni President

Coach Bill Stewart of English High claims that Mr. Egan has witnessed more E.H.S. athletic contests than any other living graduate.

It looked like "one of those seasons"
